CWP.No.488/2002

Learned counsel for the respondents submits that without going into the merits of the case, he has been able to persuade his client to resolve the matter amicably by making a lump sum payment of Rs.1,25,000/-, in addition to Rs.50,000/- already given as compensation to the petitioners pursuant to the order passed by the Human Rights Commission. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the offer of the respondents is fair, just and acceptable to the petitioners as full and final settlement of all the claims.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties and also gone through the record. I am quite convinced and satisfied with the settlement which has been arrived at. The same is also in the interest of the minor petitioners No.2 and 3 who are duly represented by their mother and natural guardian-petitioner No.1. The respondents shall remit the amount of Rs.1,25,000/- within a period of six weeks from today in the bank account of the petitioners which shall be provided by the learned counsel for the petitioners to the learned counsel for the respondents . The present writ petition is disposed of accordingly.
